DEDICATED

To Wesleyan's Friend

To a distinguished West Virginian — a great pioneer and builder — whose outstanding achievements in the fields of industry, citizenship and Christian education, have brought honor to his native state, the 1950 Murmurmontis is dedicated.

Michael Late Benedum, whom the Christian Advocate called the nation's leading Methodist layman, was born in Bridgeport, Harrison County, on July 16, 1869. When he was fourteen years of age, he went to work for twenty-five dollars a month in a grist mill in his home community.

Ten years later he was assistant general land agent of the South Penn Oil Company, and by the time he was thirty he was the leading independent oil producer of West Virginia. Before he was fifty, he had discovered and developed many of the largest oil fields in America, as well as in Mexico, South America and Roumania, and had attained recognition as the nation's foremost petroleum pioneer.

Although Mr. Benedum is today known throughout the world as the most successful oil pioneer in history, the greatest measure of his devotion and service has been to the church and to his fellow man. He has been identified with Methodism since childhood, and has demonstrated a particular interest in the work of West Virginia Wesleyan College. His wise counsel has been extremely helpful in the rapid and sound development of the institution.

Through his discovery and development of oil fields throughout the world, Mr. Benedum has added untold billions of dollars to the national wealth of America and to that of other nations.

At the age of 80, he still actively directs a far-flung oil empire that includes several corporations engaged in the production, refining, transportation and distribution of crude oil and petroleum products. With becoming modesty, however, he is an officer and director of only one of the many corporate enterprises which he controls.

At the same time he carries on his manifold business activities, his alert mind is deeply concerned with the forward march of Christianity which he regards as the last bulwark against Communism and all other expressions of Godless materialism.

In recognition of his remarkable achievements and in particular appreciation of his outstanding contribution to Methodism and to all Christian institutions, we are pleased to dedicate the 1950 Murmurmontis to this distinguished West Virginian and great American.

It Seem Like Only Yesterday . . .

You were angry at the professor who graded you lower than your self-evaluation, and you said mean things about the chapel speaker who interfered with your lunch hour, and maybe you even mentioned, in a fit of anger, that you were sorry you ever saw West Virginia Wesleyan. But when the sunny hours and the cloudy ones are placed on the balance a true price may be estimated for your life at Wesleyan. Or can you set a price on it?

Remember the homecoming festivities? When Sunday came you were tired but happy. You'll never forget that blind date. Your friend told you she was a nice girl.

Oh well! I wonder who set off the alarm clock in assembly. Did you ever get a chance to have your raincoat cleaned? Many world problems were solved in those bull sessions, to say nothing of the jokes (and I had better not). Those sure were interesting line-ups on the girl's dorm's porches when 10:45 called your Cinderella.

Finally you were measured for your graduation outfit. You shook hands with the big boys and fondled your sheepskin. And as you took your farewell stroll down the shady triangular walk you wondered when you would be back. I'll bet it will be soon.

Senior Class

Seniors Enjoy Sunny Hours on Wesleyan's Campus

The Senior class began the year with thoughts of graduation in mind. We entered an antique, horse-drawn hearse in the Homecoming parade which drew much interest and attention and received honorable mention from the judges. The Seniors participated in all of the Homecoming activities and were active in all social functions throughout the year.

In January, commencement was held for thirty-six Seniors with Dr. Paul F. Douglas, president of American University, Washington, D. C., as guest speaker. In April we faced the taking of Graduate Record exams and Comprehensives with our brains full of knowledge. Also we ordered announcements and caps and gowns for the one hundred and four members of the class of May, 1950. The Seniors participated in May Day activities and a dinner was given for the Senior girls with the Junior girls as hostesses. Recognition Day was held in May with the honors brought to many of the members.

Commencement activities started with the Baccalaureate Service Sunday, May 28. A reception for seniors, their families and the faculty was held that afternoon with President and Mrs. W. J. Scarborough as host and hostess. A concert by the Music Department was given on Sunday night. On Monday night, the Commencement Play was presented and on Tuesday, May 30, the one hundred and four members of the Senior Class received their degrees; some with reluctance, some with pleasure. We have many pleasant memories of sunny hours here at Wesleyan.

Year of Fine School Spirit

The class of '51 began its third year with a renewed school spirit. The beginning of the year found many of the class members active in assisting the incoming Freshmen. Shortly after the beginning of the semester the class was reunited in a good old "hill-billy" reunion. The program was highlighted by a square dance in the gym followed by a marshmallow roast. The reunion set the class off to an active start.

At Homecoming many of the students busied themselves in producing the novel skit, "A Day In Agony" while others were occupied in building the class float.

The second semester found the class still in an industrious mood. In hopes of gaining a financial groundwork the '51ers backed the student production of a musical tragedy, "Lost Tomorrow" which was directed by one of its members, Stanley Meyers. The musical was the outstanding Junior Class activity of the year.

In planning for a final class outing and looking forward to their next and last grand year at West Virginia Wesleyan, the Class of '51 watched the closing moments of its third year.

Class of '52

The Class of '52 started its Sophomore year with a somewhat bleak outlook. The treasury was destitute of funds, and there was a bill on hand for expenses incurred in the Freshman year. President Johnson had a Sophomore Council elected to assist him in directing the class' activities. The members of the council were: Betty Sommers, Barbara Harless, Eleanor Banks, Merle Swearingen, Ken Minor, Henry Anderson, Ed Dassing, Cal Remacle, By Williams, Jenny Belle Weaver, Sam Ross, and the class officers Dick Johnson, John Walker, Colleen Burke, and Mona Harris. The class sponsored a dance and made enough money to finance the Homecoming activities. The class had one of the outstanding floats in the Homecoming parade; and Club 52, featuring "Sheckles" Remacle and "Moisch" Swearingen, was one of the best acts in Wesleyantics.

The Sophomores will carry their famous $14.-00 debt with them into their Junior year for sentimental reasons, but with a treasury with "something" in it and a new ship of state captained by the able Merle Swearingen they need not fear a state of bankruptcy.

Freshman Class Proves Her Worth to Wesleyan

The Freshman class arrived at West Virginia Wesleyan September 15 and 16, ready for tests, parties, gab, and work. Destiny decided they must build a bonfire for the first thuse of the year. This they energetically did, collecting everything from scraps of paper to a telephone pole to make one of the biggest bonfires ever seen.

Homecoming was the next problem to be solved. The freshman part in the Wesleyanties showed one answer—the number being an interesting skit from the song, "A You're Adorable". Taking as their theme "School Spirit," various members erected a float worthy of the class. They illustrated school spirit by a large thermometer in the center of the vividly decorated float with the mercury passing completely out of the thermometer to indicate an all time high. Different students portrayed the academic and athletic work at Wesleyan. All this work was financed by the proceeds from the "Freshman Frolics of Forty-Nine" given one snowy December night. The program consisted of freshman talent in a glee club, individual singing, group comedy, announcing, individual performers in other skits, plus a guest tap artist.

The approaching Christmas season required a tree on the campus which the class provided. Then vacation and back to school again.

"Lost Tomorrow" had many freshmen in its cast as did "HMS Pinafore". Seventeen of those who had worked on the float threw chips into the kitty and were served a banquet with all the trimmings by Chef Coker at the First Baptist Church.

Not only were freshmen found in the varsity eleven, but also Maravich's five almost always had at least four freshmen in the line up.

Through these endeavors, the freshman class truly made itself a part of Wesleyan.

Fall

The morns are meeker than they were.

The nuts are getting brown:

The berry's cheek is plumper.

The rose is out of town.

Bobcats Play Football, No Matter What the Weather

The Bobcats didn't always play in the sunny hours, but then, electric lights can be made to look enough like sunshine that the illusion is still there.

Attending a football game is never quite the same when you are no longer an undergraduate. The "spirit" hits the campus along with the crisp autumn air and the October colored leaves that fall to the ground and crackle like pop corn when you step on them.

As you walk up Mead Street you hear the college band beating out a tune. You stop at Agnes Howard to pick up a gal and a gang, show your activity card at the gate, buy a program, and hunt a seat on the 50 yard line.

The Bobcats stepped out of their class when they tangled with Xavier at Cincinnati, and were reminded of the fact to the tune of 53-0. Returning to the home field, they met some stiff competition in a scrappy Salem squad, emerging with a 6-6 tie. This was the second straight year the two teams had tied, with the Rossmen bouncing back to overcome Glenville 27-19 the following week.

A visit from West Liberty found the opposition a bit too tough for the locals, as the Hilltoppers downed their hosts 27-0 with one of the most formidable attacks

You're just nicely settled when the Bobcats run onto the field . . . And Bob Lemmerman, Lynn Miller, or someone else tempts you to buy pop corn, candy, or potato chips.

There's the kickoff! You yell your lungs out with "Hold that line", "Here's to old Wesleyan", "Block that kick", and "Fight team fight".

The team rolls up the score; there's a whistle and its all over. You push your way out of the stadium with the rest of the crowd. The girl at your side snuggles a little closer and says its getting cold.

You walk along kicking the leaves that smell so good and remark, "Yep! Great football weather".

witnessed on the home gridiron. A trip to Bethany found an enormous line which proved the margin of victory in a 20-13 struggle. Jim Primozić scored on a pass from Mickey Laughlin, while Bill Newbrough picked up a blocked kick and scampered over for the other TD for Wesleyan.

The Fairmont Falcons tripped the Bobcats 27-0 at Fairmont, with All-state back Keener of the Falcons scoring three tallys and setting up the other. Homecoming found the Orange and Black holding power-laden Waynesburg to a 19-0 victory, playing their best game of the season. The strength of the visitor's reserves was the deciding factor in this game, as in many others.

Facing an untied, unscored-on St. Vincent eleven, the Bobcats managed to score against their immovable line. Charley Shephard ripped off a brilliant 47 yard run to the opponent's 2 yard marker where Zaner Hinkle dived over for 6 points. The foes avenged the tally with a 52-6 defeat, but the damage to their record had been done. A 20-12 licking from W. Va. Tech and 20-6 lacing from the old rival, D & E, sent the locals down the road to despair a bit deeper, terminating in the humiliation of a 61-6 smearing from the Golden Eagles of Morris-Harvey.

Zaner Hinkle led the limited scoring with 24 points, while Shephard and Primozic had 12. Ross, Newbrough, Kelly, and Forsythe each had one touchdown and Zickefoose made 4 conversions to round out the season's scoring.

Coach C. B. "Cebe" Ross led his 1949 football Bobcats into one of the toughest eleven-game schedules he has had in many years, and emerged with one of the worst records he has had since coming to the campus as a coach in 1925. With but one returning starter in the backfield in All-state Chuck Shephard, the Bobcats worked around a "T" formation offense in their attempt to produce a winning team. Late in the season a single-wing attack was added, but to no avail. For the first time in the history of the school, a two-platoon system was inaugurated with a defensive unit resting the offensive squad and actually playing more than the ball-carrying division.

The Orange and Black eked out a 27-19 win over a helpless Glenville eleven, and drew a tie with Salem's Tigers. Other than these two encounters, defeat was the order of the day for the Bobcats. Bill Newbrough won the Frank M. Thompson trophy for the "most outstanding" player on the team, and Co-captains Cal Forsythe and Shephard were named to the second team in All-Conference polling in post-season recognitions.

Cebe is looking forward to an easier schedule, and more experienced players next year; but we cannot forget the untiring efforts of the players in a hopeless cause.

Pharos Reports Campus Activities

In the year 1904 West Virginia Wesleyan College adopted the name "Pharos" for its school paper. Formerly it had been called the "Seminary Herald" (1892) and "Seminary Collegiate" (1900).

Throughout its history the Pharos has remained a publication by the students, for the students. Those who have been interested in Journalism as a career, or have wished to gain practical experience have composed the staff.

The Pharos has for its objectives the complete coverage of all news for students, faculty, and friends; cultivating a constructive school spirit, and the advancement of the general objectives of the college.

September found a horde of eager freshmen flocking to the first Pharos meeting along with a few seasoned veterans of the preceding years. It might be significant to mention that 13 freshmen dominated the staff during the year.

Deadline was usually the chief evil encountered by the staff and caused them to adopt the motto "tempus fugit."

Highlights of the year were the Homecoming resumé, April Fool's edition, the May Day-Commencement, and a series of lectures about the different phases of journalism.

A bigger and better Pharos is planned for next year with the advent of a weekly 4 page paper.

Benzene Ring Boosts Top Chemistry Students

The Benzene Ring, oldest student organization on Wesleyan's Campus, was organized in 1921. The Ring is composed of outstanding students in chemistry, and who maintain a high academic standing.

This year the Ring underwent some radical changes. The major change was in the form of affiliation with ACS (American Chemical Society). Now the Ring is officially the "Benzene Ring Chapter of the American Chemical Society." Prominent men of science (particularly Wesleyan graduates) are imported to present bi-weekly programs. Dr. Nicholas Hyma, head of Wesleyan's chemistry department, is the organizations sponsor.

A "Strawberry Breakfast" is planned for May 28 as a combination farewell to the seniors of the Ring and a welcome back to alumni.

Officers for the current year are: John Tucker, president; Charles Egolff, vice-president; Robert Young, secretary; and Lynn Lewis, treasurer.

Christian Service Fellowship Promotes Year of Christian Activities

The school year 1949-50 found the Christian Service Fellowship as active as it has always been. It met weekly, on Tuesday afternoons for communion with God and for fellowship. At these meetings, the group had the enriching experience of listening to excellent speakers.

In service, the Christian Service Fellowship had done much. It completed the Weston Project, and has taken a Prison Project where members of the group go to the State Prison Work Camp to hold services every Sunday afternoon. In addition to these, the group had the experience of giving broadcasts of religious dramas once a week over Station WHAW through the Lenten season.

Socially, the group had several parties and other "fun" activities.

This organization heartily welcomes anybody interested in Christian work, and it hopes that with the work of these Christian students, our college, our community, our nation, and our world may be better places in which to live.

Officers are: President, Fred Hill; Vice-President, Edward Seibert; Secretary, Evangeline Mequi; Treasurer, Ben McKee.

Psychology Club - - for Interested Students

The West Virginia Wesleyan Psychological Society is a new organization on the campus this year. It was organized early in the fall and has carried on a full and interesting program. The purpose of the society is to provide a common medium of expression for students having a serious interest in psychology, thereby broadening their approach to, and their experience in the field. The membership is limited to those majoring or minoring in psychology, and affiliate membership is granted to those who are interested in psychology and have had some courses in the field.

The activities of the society include projects of building mazes, reaction time boards, a visual board, and of conducting public opinion and propaganda polls. Experiments in hypnotism and extra-sensory perception were conducted and Dr. Franquiz spoke to the group on the subject of Hypnotism. Dr. Zellars, the superintendent of Weston State Hospital, spoke to the group about Mental illness. Exchange meetings were held with Davis and Elkins Mental Hygiene Club, and the society visited Spencer Hospital for the mentally ill at Spencer, W. Va.

At regular meetings experiments in maze-running by a hamster, and experiments with finger mazes and reaction time boards were conducted. Dr. Vayhinger spoke to the group concerning vocations in psychology and gave much valuable information concerning necessary training in the field and how that training might be secured.

As a special service to the campus, the society sponsored a movie on "Human Reproduction" which was followed by a panel discussion. Those taking part in the panel were Professor Arnold of the Biology Department, Dr. Rice, representing the Ministry, Dr. Vayhinger, representing the Psychology Department, Dr. Currie, representing the Sociology Department, and Dr. Chamberlin, representing the Medical Profession. The society also sponsored another movie entitled "Psychiatry in Action."

Alpha Delta Pi Celebrates Greatest Year of Success

The Alpha Delta Pi's opened the year with the greatest success by winning the first prize for the Homecoming Float. The float represented the Greek idea of victory.

The formal rush party was held at Ross's camp on the Buckhannon River. It was in the form of a hobo party. We rushed 33 girls, of which number, 13 were honored with membership.

The pledging for these rushees was held at the home of Mrs. Reger, our sorority mother on November 23, 1949.

The A D Pi's shared the Christmas spirit with two girls of the Erie school in Olive Hill, Kentucky, by sending them numerous gifts. The girls gift wrapped the presents and then went caroling.

The pledges were very active. Among activities was a tea held for the pledges of the Alpha Gamma Delta and Alpha Xi Delta Sororities on Jan. 15, 1950.

The actives held a coke party for the pledges at the Union on Jan. 17. The pledges held an informal party for actives at the Union on February 15.

The second semester rush party was held at the Union. It was in the form of a Valentine Party. Following the party was a candle-lighting service which formally introduced courtesy week. During this week the pledges performed different duties and acts showing courtesy toward one another. Courtesy week closed with an Alumnae tea held at 49 S. Florida St.

After initiation a banquet was held honoring the new actives. Betty-Jo Birkhead and Barbara West were given awards for the best essays on "What Alpha Delta Means to Me".

Installation of new officers was held in the drawing room of Agnes Howard Hall March 23. Those taking over for the new year are:

President, Helen Payne; Vice-Pres., Betty Urbach; Recording Secretary, Betty Jo Birkhead; Corresponding Sec., Barbara

K A Lists Its Achievements

Beta Chi Chapter of the Kappa Alpha Order was the first national fraternity on Wesleyan's Campus. The Kappa Alpha Order was founded under the spiritual guidance of Robert E. Lee shortly after the Civil War. Beta Chi was established as a chapter in 1929. To date, the Order directs 74 active chapters throughout the country with well over 34,000 members.

Beta Chi has been a tradition founding organization since its founding. Its annual social affairs including the fall warm-up hayride and wiener roast and numerous original theme house parties down to the gala winter formal and elaborate Dixie Ball are anticipated long before the actual dates and well remembered long after the last good nights.

Many organizations and members within Beta Chi have received campus recognition. The K A glee club under the direction of George Weigle has achieved much acclaim as connoisseurs of mellow harmony. A number of K A intramural teams have braved stiff competition for the honour of the crimson and old gold. Bill Hastings, Myron Smith, and Marvin Culpepper play like and are ping pong champs.

K A leaders on campus include: Bill Gwennap, president of the student body; Bob Hermann, president of the Senior Class; Lynn Lewis, treasurer of the Senior Class; Charles Given, president of Tri-Beta, and Doug Pratt, editor of the school newspaper.

Volley Ball Aspirants Thrive Again...

In the off-season between football and basketball when it is too sloppy to play outside, and vigorous Bobcats and Bobkittens seek an outlet for dormant energy, Wesleyan's field house becomes the scene of a peculiar sport. The game is played with a net resembling one that might be used for tennis. But this is far from tennis. A ball a little smaller than a basketball passes to and fro over the jacked-up tennis net. No other equipment is required for this sport, except maybe a bandaid now and then. This is volleyball!

"Set 'em up!" "Spike it!" "Kill it!" "Knock it down their throats!" This is an example of the peculiar vernacular which is synonymous with the phenomenon. I have been told that the game was originated by a man who was seeking a sport less strenuous than tennis but still affording a reasonable amount of exercise. If this was his original intention it seems to me that the game has gotten a little out of hand. It has become as strenuous as tennis, and is more dangerous since there is a better chance of more people being crippled or maimed. Each team is comprised of six players. That is, each man's team. I believe the girls require more voices than uncontrollable limbs to get the ball from one head to another.

However, regardless of the adverse comment, volleyball is here to stay. Each year more and more unsuspecting addicts take their life in their hands and sign up with a team. If you should ask them what is so fascinating about the game, they might answer, "It's more fun than being beat on the head with a hammer." I wonder.

SCENES FROM THE WESLEYAN-SALEM BASKETBALL GAME.

Maravich Builds Powerful Bobcat Five in First Year

Coach Press Maravich began his first year at coaching at Wesleyan by building a team of one senior and four freshmen into a winning combination which captured fifth place in the Intercollegiate Conference during the season and placed second in the post-season tournament. The team pulled plenty of upsets during the year, but they also had some "bad nights" when they couldn't hold the pace of a blistering Morris-Harvey or Davis & Elkins.

The Bobcats served notice on the coaches of the conference that they were out to win by their performance in the opening game. A supposedly powerful Tech team found it hard going before edging the Orange and Black 56-54. From there on throughout the season Wesleyan was a respected opponent.

Highlight of the regular season came when the ancient rival, Davis & Elkins, invaded the Bobcat lair and went home on the short end of a 72-63 score. This was the Senator's second loss in the conference, as they had already sewed up first place in the conference runnings. The Bobcats played magnificently, with Captain Sugar Malling taking rebounds beautifully, and center Jim Munnell holding down the towering Hap Huey who had scored 60 points in one game against Morris-Harvey.

As the tournament opened in Buckhannon, Wesleyan drew a bye in the first round and went into the Morris-Harvey fracas the definite underdogs. However, the 'Cats took an early lead before the brilliant George King could hit for the Golden Eagles. It was a thrilling contest throughout, with guard Ted Come dropping a swishing set shot from near mid-court with 15 seconds remaining to give Wesleyan the lead. Come was fouled as the final buzzer sounded and converted two fouls as Wesleyan upset the visitors, 74-70. The following night the Orange and Black again were victorious in a close contest, downing West Liberty 60-57. In the tourney final, though, the boys were just too tired to repeat their earlier performance against D & E as Huey dropped in 32 points to lead the Senators to a 77-56 defeat of the Bobcats.

Freshman Jim Munnell began the season as a forward, then switched to the center post where he continued to lead the Bobcat scoring, totaling 362 points for the season. Lanky Loren Brake developed accuracy in his long set shots and hit for 237 points, followed closely by diminutive George Danovich with 234 counters, mostly from one-hand push shots. Guard Ted Come made 188 points in addition to his valuable floor work, and Cookie Leffard made 133 ralleys as he enrolled the second semester. Big Harry Johnson added 120 points in his last year of play, while Chuck Elkins made 9, John Southern 6, Jack Campbell 5 and Scott Withers 2.

Captain Sugar Malling led his freshmen charges in every encounter, and finished his fourth year for the 'Cats in fine style, being honored with a post on the All-tournament squad for his performance in that event. He was second in scoring for the team with 249 points, but he was playing a completely new style of ball from that of his old coach, Cebe Ross. Sugar proved himself the master of that change, though, and in addition improved his defensive game greatly.

Everything considered, it was a completely successful season. The prospects for another year are bright with five freshmen who have been starters this season ready to hold defensive record they now have and add the conference championship to their possessions. The Bobcats had the best defensive record they now have and add the conference championship to their possessions. The Bobcats had the best defensive record in the loop this season, they moved from last place in the standings a year ago to fifth; they went into the final encounter of the tournament. That's an enviable record for any coach to build in one year, particularly when it was Maravich's first as a head coach.

Staff Presents The 1950 Annual Edition

Presenting the record of a year at Wesleyan is a challenge to each staff as it plans the MURMURMONTIS and sends it to press. The effort to record 1950 in pictures and print has been a pleasure. All the accuracy desired is not here, but a conscientious effort was made to make it as accurate as possible. We sincerely hope you like the effort.

Chapel and Assembly Committee

Students are requested to attend chapel and assembly at Wesleyan. The programs are varied and diversified to give the students wider cultural views and challenge their thinking. Such well-known persons as Bishop Oxnam, Gaston Foote, and Richard Llewellyn appeared before the student body. Students are requested to inform the committee of speakers and entertainers they would like to recommend appear before the student body. The Community Council presents problems and shares ideas with the students once each month.

Debaters Win Intramural Gold Medal Tournament

Wesleyan's inter-collegiate debate program is based upon the intra-mural debate season which provides debaters able to represent the school upon the platform against the best that West Virginia and neighboring states have to offer. This year Wesleyan was the only non-State school represented in the State Inter-Collegiate Debate Tournament at Montgomery. Here Wesleyan was represented by the winning team in the intra-mural Gold Medal Tournament; Helen Fisher and Fred Cooke, affirmative, and Eugene Maley and Edward Duff, negative. An all girls squad consisting of Helen Payne and Jennie Belle Weaver, affirmative, and Colleen Burke and Ellen Roush, negative, debated a home and home series with Salem, and a double debate at Potomac State before entering an invitation tournament at Marietta College where they met various Ohio college teams. The highlight of the girls' season was the trip to Potomac State, at Keyser, where they were fog-bound for the night and enjoyed the cordial hospitality of their hosts. Sharpening up for the State Tournament, Wesleyan's representatives enjoyed a pair of home and home debates with Glenville prior to the trip to Montgomery.

Philosophical Fraternity

Pi Epsilon Theta is the national philosophical fraternity on Wesleyan campus.

The membership is composed of those students who have a serious interest in philosophy and who have maintained a high scholastic average, and faculty members who are interested in the field.

Regular monthly meetings are held and this year in preparation for the state meeting of the West Virginia Philosophical Society the fraternity held bi-monthly meetings. The highlight of the activities each year is the state meeting which is a bi-annual affair. Twice each year students and faculty get together to present papers and exchange ideas. The fall meeting was held at Alderson Broaddus College at Philippi, W. Va. and Bert Dowler presented a paper on the subject, "The Problem of Racial Freedom in a Dynamic Democratic Society." Stanley Meyers and Dorothy Steinkraus defended the paper from the floor. The spring meeting was held at Bethany College at Bethany, W. Va. and Julia High presented the paper on the subject, "Values, Relative or Absolute." Eugene Haaf and Eugene Maley defended the paper.

The climax of the year's activities was the spring initiation and banquet. Professor Hallam delivered the lecture at the banquet on the subject "Cybernetics."

Alpha Psi Omega Organized as National Honor Fraternity

Alpha Psi Omega was organized as an honorary dramatic fraternity for the purpose of providing an honor society for those doing a high standard of work in dramatics. Through the expansion of Alpha Psi Omega among the colleges of the United States and Canada a wider fellowship for those interested in the college theatre was provided. The fraternity is not intended to take the place of the regular dramatic club or other producing groups, but as students qualify, they are rewarded by election to membership in this society.

The national Society was founded August 12, 1925 at Fairmont State College in Fairmont, W. Va. It has now grown to a total of 230 active chapters with Alpha being the forty-first chapter to be formed.

During the year '49-'50, there were four members in Alpha Rho Chapter. They are: Raymond Moore, president; Barbara Capet, vice president; Julia Cheng, treasurer; and Jack Ferrell. The sponsor of this chapter is Mrs. James Welshonice.

Thirteen Students Lead Group Ministry

Thirteen ministerial students under the supervision of Professor Davis operate two circuits of churches. The college maintains a station wagon and a sedan for the use of the group in their church work.

The Harrison Circuit, the first group of churches to test the group ministry plan, was so well pleased that a new circuit was added this year. The new circuit includes the churches located in the Freemansburg area.

Group Ministry has only been in operation for a comparatively short number of years. However, it continues to prove its worth more and more each year, not only as a means of providing worship for the outlying churches, but also as a valuable source of experience for student ministers.

Lambda Theta Mu Lives in Dining Hall

Lambda Theta Mu is an organization whose members are employed in the Agnes Howard Hall dining room. Meetings were held around the dinner table over dessert. Once each year the girls of Agnes Howard show their appreciation for fine service by reversing the regular procedure. Volunteer co-eds roll up the sleeves of white waiter's jackets and serve a special dinner to Lambda Theta Mu members.

There is also a traditional softball game played each year between the tray handlers from Agnes Howard and the hash pushers from the Gym dining hall. The game outcome is unpredictable as well as the number of waiters who will be able to serve students that evening.

Alpha Xi Delta

Alpha Xi Delta Fraternity was founded at Lombard College in 1893. Beta Sigma chapter was installed at West Virginia Wesleyan in 1948, the first national social fraternity for women to be established on the campus.

Alpha Xi Delta opened Wesleyan's social calendar with a dance in the Student Union. This social function began the year's activities.

Barbara Bertly, Beta Sigma's president was elected by the student body as Homecoming Queen; two of her attendants were Alpha Xi Deltas: Louise Marshall, a junior and Colleen Burke, a sophomore.

Each year members of Beta Sigma remember many unfortunate children in Buckhannon and the surrounding area with gifts: Clothing, toys, books, games — some new, some reconditioned — all carefully selected according to the ages, sizes and interests of the children. This local philanthropic project began several years ago when Beta Sigma was a local sorority on Wesleyan's Campus.

Alpha Xi Deltas across the nation will have more than usual interest in the Mid-Century White House Conference on Children which is to be held in December, 1950. Alpha Xi Delta's part in the Conference is the financing of the Brown County, Indiana, research and demonstration project. Participating in this national philanthropic project, Beta Sigma Numerous other activities of the year included the presentation of a skit in Wesleyantics, Christmas caroling with the Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity, participation in the Panhellenic Workshop, an annual Valentine's Day dance, party for the Buckhannon Alumnae chapter, and the traditional Big and Little Sister party.

Founder's Day was observed April 21 with a buffet dinner and commemorative program in the Student Union. At this meeting Barbara Hinshelwood presented the scholarship ring to Anna Lou Young. The ring is given to the junior having the highest accumulative scholarship average for two and one-half years and is worn until the next Founder's Day program when it is presented to the deserving junior.

Anna Lou Young, newly elected president, and Martha Hunt were elected to represent the chapter at the Province Convention in Charleston in May.

Louise Marshall, a senior; and Colleen Burke, a junior were attendants for the May Day queen. The chapter took part in the Inter-Fraternity Sing.

The year's activities were concluded with the Annual Rose Formal, which is the outstanding social event of the year.

History of Alpha Sigma Phi

The tale of Alpha Sigma Phi, tenth oldest social fraternity in the collegiate realm, begins 105 years ago, December 6, 1845. This date marks the birth of a fraternal spirit echoed today throughout 74 eager chapters widely scattered over this great nation.

Founded at Yale in 1845 by Louis Manigault, Stephen Rhea, and Horace Weiser, Alpha Sigma Phi became a sophomore society. As the junior fraternities vied for control of Alpha Sigma Phi, the struggle became increasingly keen and bitter, even to the point of physical combat. The faculty then stepped in to suppress Alpha Sigma Phi and forbade the initiation of its pledges.

But the spirit of Alpha Sigma Phi's brotherhood had found its way into other schools and many chapters were installed, one of them being Beta Nu at West Virginia Wesleyan; its contemporary active members being comprised of those men at whose faces you now peer.

Alpha Sigma Phi, one of the oldest Greek letter societies on the Wesleyan campus, is the culmination of several fraternal mergers. The first occurred in 1933 when Xi Alpha Tau, a local "club" organized in 1923, was absorbed as Psi chapter of Alpha Kappa Pi. Then, in 1946, the greatest single step was taken in the enlargement of Alpha Sigma Phi when Alpha Kappa Pi and Alpha Sigma Phi consolidated to bring our chapter roster to 72.

But the final chapter of Alpha Sigma Phi has not been nor will it ever be penned, for Alpha Sigma Phi will surge ever onward with the zeal and boundless energy of youth, will strive relentlessly toward her high ideals and objectives, will instil in its men a spirit of brotherhood and the knowledge that whatever they do, wherever they may go, Alpha Sigma Phi is with them.

Alpha Sig's Boast Many Social Achievements

This year the men of Beta Nu Chapter of Alpha Sigma Phi were initially recognized on campus in their participation in Homecoming. Their participation in Weslevantics was the presentation of Shakespeare's tragedy, JULIUS CÆSAR. Gags fell and hilarity made the mighty emperor take a back seat. After the homecoming game, the doors of the chapter house at 26 Meade St. were thrown wide open to the "old grads."

November marked the date of the first pledge smoker. The men chosen responded well to requests during the ensuing pledge season, and March 26 saw eleven of them formally initiated. The pledge dance was held at McThony's Tea Room. Following this event in December was a Christmas Dance held at the same place.

Shortly before Christmas vacation the Alpha Sigs joined the ladies of Alpha Xi Delta in an evening of caroling. Afterward, the weary songsters were revived with cookies and cocoa at the fraternity house.

The pledges, not to be outdone, held a dance at the Student Union with the actives as guests of honor. Music was by Dave Casto and his regime. Everyone had a fine time.

The social event of the year for all Alpha Sigma Phi was the annual formal held at the Stonewall Jackson Hotel in Clarksburg, March 10. Long will this dance be remembered by the brothers and their lady loves. Heinie Hammel and his band were the music makers.

In the intramural activities the fraternity showed up very well. The basketball team ended the season in a tie for first place of the "A" League with a six to one record. However, they were beaten in the championship game. The softball team also deserves credit for the fine showing they made.

The Alpha Sigs completed the year by taking part in the annual May Day sing.

Wesleyan Broadcasts Over WHAW Each Week

Classes at Wesleyan are not merely theory or memorized facts from books. Professors believe that students learn by doing.

In late March a group of students approached Miss Crisman of the English Department to see if a broadcast might be arranged over the local station WHAW at Weston. A talk with the program manager at the studio resulted in 15 minutes of public service time for a series of broadcasts each Thursday night. In April the time was extended to one-half hour. The requirements for interpreting a role were voice quality, interest, and understanding of the role.

Anyone was invited to try-out.

Story dramatizations produced included: "The Bishop's Candlesticks" by Victor Hugo; "The Happy Prince" by Oscar Wilde; "The Split Cherry Tree" by Jesse Stuart; "There Are Smiles" by Ring Lardner; "Lost Horizon" by James Hilton; "The Failure" by Katherine Haviland-Taylor; and "The Test" by Joseph Ruscoll.

Great interest was shown in the program. It is hoped that a studio can be erected on Wesleyan's Campus in the future.

Tennis Team Expands Wesleyan's Sport Program

With official recognition from the athletic department of the college and the valuable assistance of a coach, interest mounted in the tennis team on our campus as the 1950 season opened. Provided that the team play five matches, Wesleyan sweaters would be awarded the participants according to Athletic Director C. B. "Cebe" Ross. Further encouragement was added by the college with the engagement of Mr. W. A. "Bill" Hallam to coach the group.

Not only Wesleyan, but the entire Conference recognized tennis as a major sport this season, rounding off the season with an all-Conference tournament opening on May 16 in Ogelby Park, Wheeling. Wesleyan entered this event, giving a good showing for the first year of their participation in such an event.

As it was required by the West Virginia Intercollegiate Conference that all matches be completed before the all-state tournament, it was not easy for Wesleyan to work off five matches due to the rainy weather. Postponements and difficulties in arranging schedules caused considerable trouble, and when a match was started, rain would bring it to a sudden stop.

The opener came with a visiting Fairmont team, which overpowered the locals 6-2. Wesleyan had very little practice on the courts, yet put up a strong battle. Freshman Steve Koeseian defeated a Falcon for the only singles victory for the 'Cats. R. L. Moore and Graham Keneweg captured a doubles victory over the visitors, but rain stopped one doubles match so Wesleyan remained behind.

After two postponements with W. Va. Tech and Potomac State, the locals traveled to Salem to start a match on May 1. The meet was originally scheduled for Buckhannon, but a Sunday night shower made the clay courts inaccessible so the contest was shifted to Salem, on the Tigers' all-weather courts. All went well until a mid-afternoon squall stopped the festivities. Arrangements were made to finish the match, when the two teams' schedules permitted it.

West Virginia Tech invaded the Bobcat lair and went home victorious. This was the first contest of the year which rain did not cut short, but perhaps it would have been better for the Bobcats if a shower had intervened as at one point they led.

At the opening of the season, Stan Meyers rated the number one slot on the Orange and Black team. Merle Barnes, number two, followed in order by Graham Keneweg, R. L. Moore, Bill Gwennap, and Steve Koeseian. However, this order was switched occasionally according to the opposition, in an effort by Coach Hallam to find a combination which could win.

Generally speaking, the entire situation concerning tennis received quite a boost during the 1950 season. The awarding of letters and tutoring by Mr. Hallam added much to the atmosphere surrounding the sport, as Wesleyan once again became interested in expanding her sports realm and building up the tennis competition.

Golf Is a Part of the Intramural Program

When Athletic Director C. B. "Cebe" Ross issued a call for those interested in forming a golf team for the 1950 season, only one man, Scott Withers, appeared. Therefore, with no interest shown by the students, the golf schedule was cancelled and the sport temporarily disbanded on our campus. Wesleyan had fielded a team for the three preceding years, as well as before the war, but with the entire squad graduating at the end of the 1949 season, interest dropped to a new low.

As Wesleyan has no golf course, the teams played their home matches on the Country Club grounds outside Buckhannon. No golf coach was appointed, as such, although Dave Reemsnyder did lend some assistance when his intramural program permitted. Thus with little connection between college and team, the players scheduled matches and won their share of them.

The 1949 team made a particularly fine showing, winning more than half of their contests from the West Virginia Intercollegiate Conference and others, such as West Virginia University. Bill Manser and Keith Queen appeared as letterman from the preceding year, and were joined by LeRoy Canfield, John Carpenter, Ray Hostetler, and John Myers.

With the cancellation of a full 15-match schedule for 1950, plans are being laid for another attempt next year. The West Virginia Intercollegiate Conference recognized golf as a major sport this year, arranging an all-state meet in Ogleby Park, Wheeling to determine the state champion college team. Thus with official recognition from the conference and a genuine interest from the Bobcat athletic department, it is hoped that next year will find a Wesleyan golf team entered in intercollegiate competition.

MUSIC HALL

Three talents that are not buried at Wesleyan further development through cooperation. Music students team up to make such beautiful music together. And sometimes they harmonize in later life too. Here Marjorie Garrett, accompanies Eleanor Banks and George Weigle. And here, three is not a crowd.

All work and no play does not apply to Mel Woolford. His work is centered around the keyboard where his playing means much work in order to satisfy the trained ear of Mr. Pollard. Nimble fingers glide over the ivory stage causing tuned strings to report the students progress.

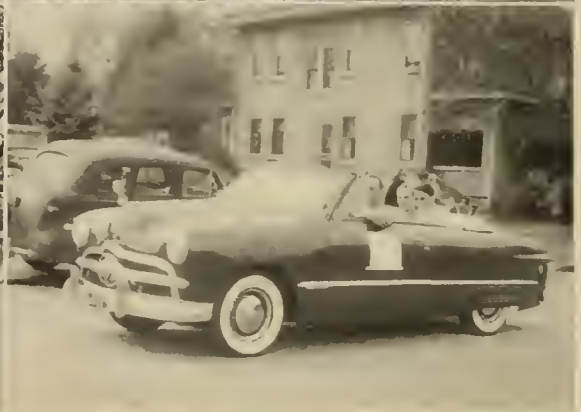

AGNES HOWARD HALL

Family problems at Wesleyan are somewhat similar to family problems in the girl's homes. That is, they are similar in that they are handled sensibly through counciling and just friendly chats. Girls often find time to converse with Miss Wilson, Dean of Women, and Miss Hereford, Agnes Howard Hall House Mother.

You may decorate your room with just about anything but a man at Agnes Howard Hall. Flora and Julia take advantage of this freedom by making their room one of the most original. Reminders of their native country, China, pleasantly flavor their quarters. Just allow yourself enough room to study occasionally.

Marching down Broadway couldn't give a greater thrill than when Wesleyan's Band marched down College Avenue behind the drum major, Walt Wilson, and put Wesleyan on parade.

And speaking of antiques—these boys know where to get them. They were shining lights in the parade.

The Freshmen know the alphabet. They can spell, too. Especially, "A, You're Adorable." We found that many of them are, too.

And what's a parade without officials? Must be nice to ride 'round in a convertible and look over the crowd.

President William Gwennep. Wesleyan's Community Council in Meeting.

Community Council Gives Wesleyan Adequate Student Government

The Community Council and its committees have again given to the students of Wesleyan a well rounded program of activities and government. With the exception of the printing of the "Directory" by the Publications Committee, the functions for which the Council has been established have been adequately fulfilled.

With the coming of younger students to our campus, our so-called student apathy problem of the past has been greatly eliminated this year. The Council has tried to broaden its knowledge by sending representatives to the N.S.A. Congress at the University of Illinois and to the State West Virginia Federation of College Students conferences. It felt that it had almost as much to give as it had to receive in the way of student government affairs.

Mr. Agey Promotes Strings Class

In order to produce a larger and finer orchestra at Wesleyan you must train musicians. And that is what Professor Agey intends to do. An accomplished violinist himself, Mr. Agey teaches a group of students some of the tricks of the strings.

Mr. Agey has been somewhat hampered in his orchestral work by a lack of stringed instruments. In order to alleviate this condition, he has formed stringed instrument classes such as the one pictured. As the students develop in skill he transfers them into the college orchestra. Most of the students in his string classes are music majors and minors who can already play one or more instrument.

Three B's Further Interest in Biology

The Beta Mu Chapter of Beta Beta Beta National Honorary Fraternity is composed of students who are majors or minors in biology. The purpose of the organization is to stimulate sound scholarship, to promote the dissemination of scientific truth, and to promote biological research. Bi-monthly meetings are held at which provisional members deliver reports on topics of biological interest. Besides this requirement for entrance, the candidates for provisional membership must have satisfactory grades and character.

On May 8, 1950, final initiation was held for the provisional members of the current year.

Officers for the year 1949-50 are as follows: Charles Given, pres.; Wilton Tenney, vice-pres.; Betty Rude, secy.-treas.; and Charles Tunstall, historian. Dr. George Rossbach is faculty advisor for the fraternity.

Conduct Committee

The Conduct Committee is one of the organizations of the Community Council. The membership of the committee consists of the dean of the college as chairman; the dean of students; two faculty members appointed by the president of the college; and four students elected by the community council.

The duty of this committee is to deal with all matters of student conduct having campus-wide significance, provided that the power to dismiss a student from the college be reserved for the administration committee of the faculty. The committee has no regular meeting time. It meets only when there has been an act of misconduct.

It is not the policy of the committee just to hear the facts of a case and prescribe punishment, but to help the student straighten out his difficulties.

W. A. A. Sponsors Varied Activities

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The women's Athletic Association is an organization open to all women on Wesleyan's campus. It was organized to increase recreational opportunities for Wesleyan women. It is a local organization affiliated with the American Federation of College Women, a national organization for women athletic associations.

The organization was introduced to the 1949-50 freshman with a weiner roast and council circle at the City Park. Each monthly meeting consisted of business and entertainment. Some of the programs to be remembered are the Christmas Party and the scavenger hunt. A much-enjoyed hamburger fry concluded the year's activities.

The Christmas party is tradition with WAA members. Its main purpose is obtaining and distributing gifts to the under-privileged children in Buckhannon.

The Intramural Sports program sponsored by WAA provides a wide and varied program for girls interested in individual and team sports. By participating in these intramurals and activities, a woman may receive an athletic award.

This group cooperated with the Music Department in sponsoring the annual May Day week-end. They also participated in the inter-fraternity sing.

The WAA is one of the largest organizations on campus and is directed by Miss Charlotte Knepshield, director of physical education for women.

The officers for the year were: President, Julia Cheng; vice president, Jean Burton; secretary, Ellen Roush; treasurer, Louise Marshall; publicity manager, Mary Kritzer; sports manager, Helen Payne.

Panhellenic Promotes Better Interfraternity Relationship

Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Zeta Delta, and Alpha Delta Pi, the three national women's fraternities on campus, formed the Panhellenic Council to promote better interfraternity relationship. Two members of each fraternity are elected to the Council to discuss and decide rushing rules and programs for each year. A tea is usually held for the girls interested in becoming members of one of the organizations.

This year Panhellenic has carried the brunt of all fraternity relations on campus because of the non-functioning of the regular Inter-fraternity Council. The Council volunteered to sponsor the annual inter-fraternity sing which is a part of the May Day exercises.

The Panhellenic Council has helped make this year one of the most successful in the history of fraternities on Wesleyan's campus. Fraternities are entrenching their organizations as an integral part of college life at Wesleyan.

Future Teachers Insure Better Education

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA--1949-1950

The Morris P. Shawkey chapter of the Future Teachers of America headed by Foster E. Starcher had as projects this year a study of current state and national legislative education, established a committee to sponsor a guidance clinic, developed an active interest in organizing FTA clubs in area high schools. They observed American Education Week and visited schools to observe teachers at work. Several outstanding speakers were presented during the year, and climaxed at the annual banquet in April by an address given by Phares E. Reeder, a leader in W. Va.'s education circles. A circulating library was established as an aid to practicing teachers. Movies concerning the policies and practices of education were presented to the group to aid in preparing them for their future work.

Officers for the year other than Mr. Starcher were: Vice-president, Lucy Lee Williams; secretary, Betty M. Cross; treasurer, Lester C. Brady, librarian, Norman K. Curtis; activities chairman, Marty Hunty, and program chairman, Evelyn Smith. Dr. J. L. Hupp and Prof. A. A. Fry sponsor the organization.

Alpha Gamma Delta

This is how the Alpha Gam's have grown.

Alpha Gamma Delta, social fraternity for women was founded on May 30, 1904, at Syracuse University, New York. The inspiration for its beginning came to Dr. Wellesley P. Coddington, a professor of philosophy at Syracuse.

The first initiation on November 18, 1904, gave the eleven founders two new sisters.

On June 16, 1905, Beta chapter was installed at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis., and Alpha Gamma Delta became national. Recent installations of chapters in Canada have made it an international fraternity.

On May 20, 1948, the Sigma Pi Delta, local sorority on the campus of West Virginia Wesleyan College became the sixteenth chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta to be established since its founding. The new chapter was called Alpha Omicron.

Alpha Delta Gamma Enjoys Active Year of Fun and Fellowship

Alpha Gamma Delta's second year on Wesleyan's campus was an active one. The new chapter rooms on the fifth floor of Agnes Howard Hall gave Alpha Omicron Chapter a home.

The girls "Whipped up Waynesburg" to win second prize in the Homecoming parade. Alda Wagner and Mary Buffington represented Alpha Gamma Delta in the celebrations as Senior and Freshman Attendants to the Homecoming Queen.

On October 22, Barbara Harless and Ruth Smith, along with several alumni were initiated into Alpha Gamma Delta.

A "Plantation Party" was the theme of the formal rush party held in November. On November 20, twenty girls pledged Alpha Gamma Delta. They were honored by the active members with a gala pajama party and the traditional tea.

On December 14, the Pledge Dance was held at Matheny's. The annual Christmas party and group caroling celebrated the Christmas season. A "Turn-About" movie party marked Valentine's Day.

Installation of the pledge class took place on February 18, with fifteen pledges going active.

Second semester rushing resulted in Betty Jean Crabb and Marjorie Garrett pledging Alpha Gam.

The Alpha Gam's dominated the May Day celebration with Alda Wagner as May Day Queen, Pat Winston, Junior Attendant, and Mary Buffington, Freshman Attendant.

Sigma Eta Delta local fraternity began the year of 1950 by becoming Delta Gamma chapter of Theta Chi National Fraternity. Included in the festivities of this momentous occasion were the formal initiation ceremonies which took place on January 7, 1950. Following the initiation a banquet was given at the First Methodist church with several national and local dignitaries present and our own President Scarborough as speaker of the evening. The day drew to climax with an installation ball held at the local Lions Den with Dave Casto and his orchestra supplying the musical atmosphere for this event. The feminine guests of the evening looked very chic with their wrist corsages of red and white carnations.

Throughout the year several smokers were held. The Fraternity made plans for an extensive social program to fill out the calendar. The first function was the National Roundup of Theta Chi, April 21. This consisted of simultaneous chapter meetings which extended from coast to coast. A series of "Date" parties and Alumni smokers were planned for spring. Also included in these plans was an open house.

On May 13, there was the annual spring dance at the Columbia Club in Weston. This was the Theta Chi sweetheart dance; the high light of the evening being the crowning of the fraternity sweetheart.

as National Fraternity

Sigma Eta Delta fraternity began this year as one of the oldest fraternities on the campus, and ended it by becoming its newest in the name of Delta Gamma of Theta Chi fraternity.

The Sigma Eta Delta's past record is a fine one, dating back to 1925. Temporarily inactive during the war years, the local Sig-Mates were re-activated in 1947. It contained a total of six members but grew persistently. There was a total membership of forty-three initiated into Theta Chi on January 7, 1950. The activities of Sigma Eta Delta were somewhat limited the first semester of 1949. Members participated in all intramural sports and won a cup in volley ball competition. The local also had it's entry in Wesleyantics, "Blood in the Saddle."

As Christmas approached, the fraternity buzzed with activity and on January the seventh, the highlight of the local's existence was being recorded as history. Present at the initiation banquet were George Griesmere, National Grand Marshall; George Callender, National Field Secretary; President Scarborough; Dr. Schoolcraft; Dr. Hupp, Dean of Men; presidents of the nationals on the campus; visitors from nearby, Theta Chi chapters; and members of Delta Gamma.

One month later, Delta Gamma moved into a house on Barbour street and the following week started dining service in the house. As the year drew to a close, the fraternity's membership totaled forty-nine.

Delta Gamma a c t i v e s represent eight states: West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Maryland, New York, Massachusetts, Ohio, Connecticut, and New Jersey. About six of Theta Chi's forty-nine members hold student offices.

So You Want to Play Ping-Pong

At Wesleyan, as most students have found, you can not always depend on the weather. In fact, you can never depend on the weather. So if it should happen to be raining or snowing or sleeting, or maybe all three at once (sometimes it does) the ping pong table at the Union may be just what you're looking for. Not as an umbrella, of course, but as a means of relaxation.

To illustrate what I mean—suppose you have a free hour between classes (A free hour is one that you haven't paid for). You were planning to spend this free hour skipping around the sunlit campus. But to your expectation it has started to sprinkle, and I use the term "sprinkle" loosely. So you and the bees (and probably six or seven stray dogs) head for the Union. Since no one needs a fourth for a game of "Old Maid," and all of the booths are occupied by coats belonging to the students who are dancing in the next room, and the reading room is too noisy for sleeping, you find yourself at a loss as to what to do.

Finally the problem is solved as you notice the ping pong game at the far end of the building. You hastily zip open your briefcase in search of your paddie. "Let me see—it was in here this morning when I replaced my toothbrush. Oh yes, here it is under my hip boots." You dash into the ping pong area and shout, "Next game!" Eight irritated voices respond with "After me." Oh well, only eight and one half games to wait. You sit on a three legged chair and pass the time by watching the Union employees trying to get rid of the six dogs that followed you into the snack bar.

At last your turn has come. After you've warmed up you glance at your watch and all of the people hurrying out of the door. Yes, it's time for class. And you didn't even get a chance to loose to Miran. Oh well, you pick up your briefcase and six companions and head for the Ad Building.

Biology

Trite but true. You've heard it hundreds of times, but everyday and every day you see proof of it. One of the advantages of a small college is closer student faculty relationship. More personal attention for each student, and here is a shining example in the Biology department at Wesleyan. "If you don't know, ask Pro." "A glad hand is a helping one."

Professor Rossbach takes time out from a busy schedule in order to assist students. And it pays off.

Dean Wilson and Girls

An instrument that every one can play is the radio. Miss Wilson and some of her "family" seem to have found a program they like in common. It could be "Just Plain Tillie's Other Wife's Nephew's Cousin," or maybe it's "The Lady in Agony." Regardless of the program the important thing is that friendly family atmosphere is shared at Agnes Howard. Of course they have their little rows, but what family doesn't?

*What is so rare as a day in June?
Then, if ever, come perfect days;
Then Heaven tries earth if it be in tune,
And over it softly her warm ear lays;*

'Cat Nine Shows Season Record of 3 Wins, 6 Losses

After getting away to a flying start with two conference victories in the first two games, Wesleyan's baseball fortunes fell as they were able to win but one more game all season. The Bobcats bested Alderson-Broadus twice and Fairmont once to round out their victory column, while losing nine games. Rainy weather forced cancellation of three additional contests.

With regulars Bob Myers, Bob Sullivan, and Ab Takacs returning from last year's squad which had won 6 and lost 7, Coach C. B. Ross found it necessary to completely revamp his team around these stalwarts. Sore arms disturbed several of the players, as well as other minor injuries. The 'Cats could not find their batting eye this season, as the team average stood .237 for the first eleven games with three pitchers, Bob Keane, Sullivan, and Matt Kuhn, leading the squad in percentage. Being pitchers, none of them played all the games, however.

The season opened with Sullivan twirling a two-bitter and topping A-B to the tune of 11-4. A second left-hander, Kuhn, won the second encounter 8-1, allowing only 3 hits to the Fairmont Falcons. These two games were an admirable opening for the year, but Saturday, April 22, proved the eventful day with W. Va. Tech supplying the first defeat of a six-game losing streak. Neither Sullivan nor Kuhn could stop the visitors as Tech dropped the locals 9-3.

Taking to the road, the Bobcats found their fortunes just as bad as they traveled to Potomac State to take an 11-7 defeat, even though they outhit the victors 12 to 7. Morris Harvey came to Buckhannon to drop the

Rossmen 15-6, in the next encounter, as four pitchers took the mound for the locals in an effort to stop the powerful Golden Eagles. A 17-9 loss to the Glenville Pioneers was next on the schedule, as Coach Ross was forced to call on his ace shortstop, Ab Takacs, to move to the pitcher's mound for 6 innings.

The Salem Tigers invaded the Bobcat lair and assumed the leadership of the Inter-collegiate Conference with an 8-2 victory. This placed the Tigers well on their way toward what appeared to be their second straight Conference crown. Next, a trip to Bethany proved no better for Wesleyan as the Bisons downed the Bobcats, 6-1. This was the sixth straight defeat for the locals, as the pitching force was overworked and found lacking.

Lefty Bob Sullivan again silenced the bats of the Alderson-Broadbudds Battlers to add his second victory of the year in an 11-9 encounter in Philippi. This was the third win for the Orange and Black for the season, and proved to be their last. The second game with Fairmont found the Falcons taking the game, 7-4. A second meeting with Bethany was a close one as Sophomore hurler Bob Keane lost a heart-breaker, 6-5.

Weather conditions continuously hampered practices, as well as postponing games, so the Bobcats never really were allowed to have good workouts regularly. Senior catcher "Butch" Gentry pulled a shoulder muscle and was out of play for the last half of the season, while Sullivan developed a sore elbow in mid-season. A combination of injuries and lack of practice made the team look ragged at times, but generally they played heads-up ball.

This was the last season for seniors Clint Allman, Butch Gentry, Bob Myers, Jim Primozic, Bob Sullivan and Ab Takacs, leaving Coach Ross with the same problem of rebuilding his team next year, as he faced this season. These men played an important role in the 1950 edition of the Bobcats, and will be badly missed in another year.

STUDENT UNION

Warrell H. Holby, Jr., from New Rochell, buries his sad face in his hand as the book store attendant relates shocking news: "The latest copy of Fantastic Stories and Science Fiction has just been sold."

"Awright," says Holby, "gimme a text book."

A view from the business side of the Student Union Snack Bar. A short order, a scalded throat, sticky fingers, and off to class—late again.

MARRIED MEN'S BARRACKS

Just give me a home by the side of the cinder road, and forget the horse—I can't ride. Married veterans take pride in their barracks apartments. They have reason to.

Another veteran's apartment. Here, Daddy brings home the report card to be approved by Junior.

SEATED: Sue Young, Mrs. Vaughn.

STANDING: Charles Given, Bert Dahler, Bob Lisensky.

Student Union Committee

Each year a member of the community council is selected to head the Student Union Committee. Bob Lisensky is this year's chairman of the committee whose job it is to organize and manage the Student Union.

Wesleyan's students get a chance to prove their proficiency in administrative functions through the Student Union Committee solely organized and operated by students.

Social Activities Committee

All campus social affairs must be placed on the social calendar according to rule. It is the job of the Social Activities Committee to review all applications for a date on the calendar. With over forty active organizations on a campus of about 761 students the committee was kept busy this year. Miss Wilson and Dr. Hupp steered the committee smoothly through some packed social weeks.

HMS Pinafore

One day in late fall, Dr. Scarborough and Dr. Schoolcraft called the members of the music and speech faculty together and proposed that the school sponsor an operetta. Mr. Agey was appointed director and Gilbert and Sullivan's HMS PINAFORE was put into production.

This delightful story of the lass who loved a sailor was a favorite with students and townspeople. It played to a well-filled house for two nights.

The captain's daughter, Josephine, loved Ralph, the common sailor. But because of the reverse social position, they could not tell each other of their love. The Captain wishes Josephine to marry Sir Joseph Porter. But because of the handsome Ralph, Josephine spurns him and plans to elope with the common sailor. Dick Deadeye, a member of the crew, warns the Captain of the elopement and the plan is "foiled." Buttercup, the buxom pedler woman, tells how when she practiced baby farming, she inadvertently mixed the identity of Ralph and the Captain. The reverse in social standing allows the lovers to marry and live happily ever after.

Choir Presented Good Listening and Entertainment During the Year

To the people of West Virginia and her neighboring states, the West Virginia Wesleyan Choir has meant good listening and fine entertainment. Directed by Charles W. Forlines, the choir presents each Tuesday special music for the chapel program. In addition the choir proffered a Christmas cantata and a spring concert. The choir also sang for the January and May Commencement programs.

Each year a choir of thirty or more selected voices travels several hundred miles and presents over fifteen concerts to the churches and high schools of West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Maryland. This year they were invited to contribute along with four other college choirs to the Pittsburgh Conference presentation of "Bold Adventure" given at the Syria Mosque on April 28, 1950, and on May 7, they assisted in a drama at the First Methodist Church in Clarksburg, W. Va. The Tour Choir was also featured in two radio broadcasts originating from WWVA in Wheeling and KDKA in Pittsburgh.

Home Economics Majors Complete Commendable Year

Betty Lamp Club, the organization formed exclusively for home economics majors and minors, wrote another commendable chapter in its history this year. With the spiritual-background of the hard working pioneer women in mind the club displayed collective spirit in volunteering their assistance in preparing the sandwiches for the C.S.F. Silver Tea.

Mrs. Sandmayer, a representative of Evaporated Milk, was engaged by the club to demonstrate the many divers and sundry uses of evaporated milk in cooking. The future homemakers strolled out of the kitchen demonstration, wiped the grease from their hands, and attended a fashion show sponsored by Handmacher, exclusive tailors of women's suits. After viewing the latest fashions, the girls attended Firestone's practical display of home utilities.

This year's officers included Betty Burris, president; Pat Phelps, secretary; and Bonnie Brown Martin, treasurer.

Initiation of New Members Started Year for Haught Literary Society

Haught Literary Society officially began its twenty-fifth year on Wesleyan's campus on Wednesday, October 12, 1949, at which time eleven new members were formally initiated. The traditional candle lighting service in Brown Chapel was followed by a reception in the drawing room of Agnes Howard Hall.

The organization meets on Wednesday of each week at which time the members present literary material ranging from biographical sketches of great writers to book reviews and glimpses of Chinese poetry. Among the guest speakers enjoyed during the year were Dr. Small, Miss Crisman, Mr. Vayhinger, Mr. Messersmith, and Miss Lee.

To climax the year's activities, a banquet was planned for May with Dr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Haught, Mrs. C. Edmund Neil, and Dr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Chrisman as honored guests.

The officers for the year were, president, Julia B. Cheng; vice-president, Carol Jean (Stalnaker) Crow; secretary-treasurer, Barbara Hinshelwood.

Those of the Society among the graduating seniors include Julia B. Cheng, Barbara Hinshelwood, Betty Jo Jacobs, Louise Marshall, Mildred Movers, Dot Steinkraus, and Alda Wagner.

Good Entertainment Enriches Wesleyan's Culture

Another important organ of the Community Council is the Cultural Enrichment Committee. Mr. Knapp, chairman, directed his committee in the selection of interesting and unique programs. The committee was responsible for engaging Murray Banks, famous psychologist, Richard Lewellyn, novelist, and the Barter Theater company which presented "Thunder Rock."

Members appointed to the committee are: Mr. Knapp, chairman; Dr. Hyma, John Tucker, Mrs. Peg Starcher, Clara Sarauoni, and George Weigle.

Delta Psi Kaps Get Things Done

Wesleyan's Alpha Eta chapter of Delta Psi Kappa, national honorary physical education fraternity for women, was the first to be formed in West Virginia. Only those majors and minors in physical education who maintain a high scholastic average are eligible for membership. As one of its many projects the Psi Kaps completed their fourth year of sponsoring programs used during the intercollegiate basket ball tournament. They also checked coats during the regular basket ball season and tournament games.

Each year the chapter attempts to carry out some project which will benefit the college and students. In past years they installed a flag pole on the football field and the redecoration of the women's physical education office. This year they installed a clock in the college gymnasium and sponsored the loving cup presented annually to the best choral group at the May-Day inter-fraternity sing.

The organization meets once a year, and this year had the meeting open to the public. It was their Founder's Day Program in Brown Chapel with C. H. "Uncle Charlie" Hartley as guest speaker.

On April 30, nine new members were initiated into the chapter. Miss Charlotte Knepschild is the sponsor of the chapter. She and two members of the chapter attended the national biennial convention of Delta Psi Kappa at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas. Miss Knepschild was elected National Province Director of the United States; she formerly had the position of Province Director of the Southern District of the United States.

Members of the organization attempt to develop a "Sound mind and a Sound body."

Explorers Enjoy Overnight Hikes

Wesleyan's unique outdoorsmen's organization, Explorer Post 129, completed its second year as a chartered unit of the National Boy Scouts of America organization on March 1, and received its new charter for the ensuing year. Under the leadership of Post Guide Charles Wilson the Explorers have enjoyed a year of activity with cook-outs, hikes and overnight camps as the principal features of the program.

Chief events of the year were the winter camp at the Council Camp grounds, the annual exploration trip into the depths of the little known Pocahontas County cavern and the overnight hike and camp in the snow on the upper reaches of the Buckhannon River.

A prized possession of the Post is its LOG BOOK, a sturdy album made by the Scouts themselves, containing a pictorial account of every major expedition of the Post from the first trip to the latest, with snapshots of many crew hikes and cook-outs in addition. Each year the Post looks forward to entering new and thrilling episodes into this illustrated history of its activity.

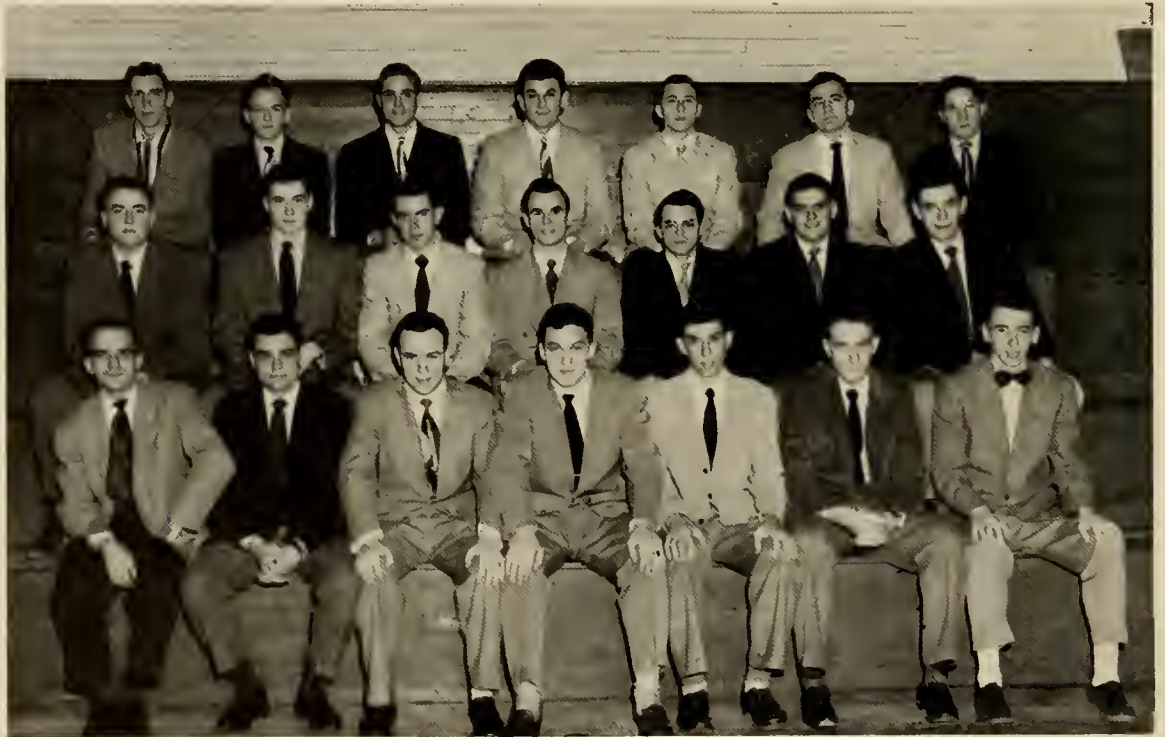

Professor Frank Berisford as Post Advisor, Professor John D. Shaver as Institutional Representative, and Dr. Scarborough, Dr. Hupp and Professor Reemsnnyder as Post Committee are the faculty men who sponsor the organization.

Phoenix Club Erects Scoreboard In Football Stadium

The Phoenix Club was founded on the W.V.W.C. campus early in 1947, by a group of young men who possessed neither the funds nor inclination for fraternity life, but who felt nevertheless, the need for getting together and doing things in the spirit of fellowship. Like any embryonic organization the Phoenix have been plagued by their share of growing pains but have managed to take part in all campus group activities.

It was the Phoenix Club who raised the funds for and built the score board in the football stadium. This year the Club's activities have included participation in the homecoming parade and the Antics, two social gatherings for members only, a dance at the Lion's Den for all students, and a banquet for the members and their dates. All of these have had, we feel, a part in realizing the purposes for which the club was formed.

SOPHISTICATED PUNCH BOWL

Now—dispense traditional cheer in the modern manner with this smart new punch set. Hand blown, brilliant crystal, an exclusive design of West Virginia Glass artisans. This handsome, footed punch bowl, shaped like a magnificent and copious brandy snifter, is a welcome departure from the old-fashioned punch bowl — accommodates $9\frac{3}{8}$ quarts of the beverage of your choice. The graceful ladle and 12 lustrous $5\frac{1}{2}$ oz. cups complete a 14-piece set. Also available with colored handles. Additional cups available from open stock.

When buying glassware, look for the blue and gold label of West Virginia Glass Co. It's your assurance of hand blown, brilliant crystal glassware — smart, modern design — superlative quality — at conservative prices. At gift, jewelry and department stores.

"Jahn & Ollier Again"

A familiar and reassuring slogan

FAMILIAR...because it has appeared in thousands of the country's finest yearbooks for the past half century.

REASSURING...because those years of specialized experience bring complete service, outstanding quality and dependable delivery to the yearbook staffs with whom we work.
